

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Amidst viral “Boston Hip Hop Culture” Talk, Boston Hip Hop artist SeeFour Announces His Album “Spirit Of A Warrior” Is Coming Next Month

SEPTEMBER 22ND, 2023 -BOSTON, MASS - The internet was ablaze this past week, when a tweet about Dunkin Donuts and Boston Hip Hop Culture amassed over 2.5 millions views (<https://x.com/DesPain/status/1702317163653312682?s=20>) across X (the social media site formerly known as twitter) and sparked debate across socials about what is “Boston Hip Hop Culture”. Fresh off his latest singles, stealing the show after the Celtics Game 7 Eastern Conference Finals appearance (www.youtube.com/watch?v=83-QTbd3hjU) and a collaborative tour with SoFar Sounds (The Sun Up Tour: <https://www.instagram.com/p/CuPqXCiuCS6/>), Boston’s dynamic live performer hip hop artist SeeFour took the opportunity to take to his socials and announce his debut album coming October 23rd, 2023 called “Spirit Of A Warrior”. The album is noticeable due to being entirely recorded in Boston by a Boston Artist (SeeFour), a Boston Producer (Billboard Charting Producer GIB DJ), a Boston Executive Producer (veteran talent manager Robert “ROB” Kelley-Morgan) and a Boston A&R (Billboard Charting Songwriter Najee Janey) and is manufactured and distributed by a new Boston based independent record label (PUTINWORK RECORDS).

“Spirit Of A Warrior” is an album about passion, perseverance and developing yourself past the pain and trauma that life may bring. SeeFour hits on topics such as the process of development, grit, grind, chaos, trauma, racism and awakening the rawest form of yourself. SeeFour believes Spirit Of A Warrior is going to go down as one of the best projects to ever come out of Boston and on Monday, October 23rd, 2023, you should check it out and see for yourself why!
